Dear Friends:

Send us your children, nieces, nephews, grandchildren, and young friends to Planet Philanthropy! Planet Philanthropy is a one day seminar, designed to help engage young people in philanthropy - teaching them the importance of civic engagement, volunteerism and grantmaking. Planet Philanthropy will take place on Saturday, August 25, 2007 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Atlanta Community Food Bank. We will provide breakfast and lunch, and from 1:30-3:30 p.m. you and your young philanthropist(s) will have an opportunity to volunteer at the Food Bank.

The program, designed for children ages 9-15, will include background on the history of philanthropy, as well as practical information on how to evaluate a nonprofit organization; read financial statements; and conduct site visits. At the meeting, participants will have the opportunity to hear from and evaluate three different organizations, giving all participants the chance to put what they've learned during the day to work. At the end of the program each student will have the opportunity to make a grant as a group and also individually to an organization of his or her choice.

Please sign up as many young people as you would like. We are asking that you (or another "sponsor") provide each student with $500 for grantmaking purposes. This "grant" is tax deductible and can be made from your fund, if you so desire.

We hope you will take advantage of this opportunity to engage your young people in the joys and passion of philanthropy and continue to share the legacy of giving that is part of your family.

Please complete the enclosed registration form as soon as possible, but no later than August 6th, 2007. Should you have questions or need any additional information, please do not hesitate to call me at 404.588.3194.

Sincerely,
